ENTRIES AND PAST PERFORMANCES

● SOL WINOKUR

Ran over a fast track at the Max Straus Center Stage Workshop in Chicago. Sol's efforts in staging and lighting have been invaluable, although this is his first start before the footlights with Kentwood Players.

● JACK NEWKIRK

Led a dance band in Cincinnati, Ohio. This is Jack's first start with Kentwood Players, with no previous experience on the track*.

*Apprentice allowance claimed.

● FARNOL FRANCIS

Is a thoroughbred product of Arizona State College. He placed with the Phoenix Little Theater group for ten years. Won by a length in "You Can't Take It With You", "Laura", "For Love or Money", "Dark Tower", "Arsenic and Old Lace" and most recently, brought in a winner with his direction of "Anna Lucasta". Farnol is a perennial favorite across the board.

● LILLIAN SCHNEIDER

Sprinted through in "Dark Tower", pranced in oleos of "Curse of An Aching Heart", has showed in television commercials and radio. Lillian has also worked as a model.

● GLORIA ROSEN

Did choreography for oleos in "On the Bridge at Midnight" and showed in "George Washington Slept Here".

● W. O. "ARKY" MARCOM

Has won, placed and showed in every Kentwood Players production since its inception. His creative efforts in every phase of backstage work have come in second only to his acting ability. His latest win was his direction and performance in "George Washington Slept Here". Arky has held two terms in office as President of Kentwood Players.
