"MEET THE CAST"

MARJORIE MORRIS, this year a new member to Kentwood Players, will be remembered for her portrayal of the mother in "Hansel and Gretel", Jennie in "The Front Page."

DICK BERKEMEYER, also a comparatively new member to Kentwood was last seen in "Front Page" in the roll of a reporter. You will see him tonight as Hannibal.

BETTY FRANCIS, one of our long-time members of Kentwood studied drama at Arizona State College. She has appeared in "Cry Havoc", "Chicken Every Sunday", and "Three's A Family."

JACK MEEKS is on-stage tonight for the first time with Kentwood. Good luck, Jack!

TERI FRIEDMAN, another new member of Kentwood, is seen tonight in the role of Mrs. Paddy. She is also a member of the Westside Center Playhouse and starred in such plays as "Harvey" and "Male Animal." Welcome to Kentwood Players, Teri!

HY BINDMAN will be remembered for his role in the melodrama "On the Bridge at Midnight" and "Anna Lucasta." We are happy to see him in the part of Titus tonight.

ART HALDANE, as a news reporter, was last seen in "The Front Page" and tonight is portraying the part of Samuel.

NAN SPACE, our little Scotch lass, was a college major in drama in Scotland. She is a hard-working and devoted member of Kentwood as well as a good actress in such plays as "Cry Havoc", "Love From a Stranger", and a can-can dance in "On the Bridge at Midnight."

ELIZABETH THORNBURGH, a dramatics major in college, is well remembered for her fine portrayals of leading roles in "For Love or Money", "Chicken Every Sunday", "The Dark Tower", "Love From a Stranger", and "Cry Havoc." She has also supplied her talents as make-up artist.

GLORIA WELLS will long be remembered for her lovely role in "Wizard of Oz." She last appeared in "Lo and Behold" in the part of Honey Wainwright, a little southern belle. Gloria was previously associated with the Huntington Park Civic Players and the Compton Junior College drama group.

JOHN SILLETTO, also a new member to Kentwood, will be seen tonight in the part of Dr. Emmett. John's wife, Julie, is a very active member of Kentwood, and so we are very happy to see John also joining as a member.

ARKY MARCOM, director of "The Curious Savage", adds this play to his long list of outstanding achievements for Kentwood, which include "Three Men on a Horse", "Lo and Behold" and "Hansel and Gretel." He has also been seen in "For Love or Money", "Chicken Every Sunday", "Time of Your Life", and many others.
