ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

Lynne Ingram - CHEATERS marks Lynne's 22nd show with the Kentwood Players. She has produced, directed, stage managed, designed lights, sound, & sets, "tech-d" in the booth and just been around for the last 8 years. She has performed in workshops, served on the Board of Directors and is currently chairing the 50th Anniversary Celebration Committee for KP. Special thanks to Mom, Barbe & Esther for all their love & support.

ABOUT THE PRODUCERS

Sheldon Cohen - Sheldon is unable to provide any information on his background because he is currently enrolled in a Government Witness Protection Program after testifying for all parties involved in a love triangle. He was, unknown to his loving wife Arlene, romantically involved with all three women. After considering an appearance on the Jerry Springer Show to address the situation, Sheldon instead opted to produce CHEATERS to throw suspicion off himself.

Calia Mintzer - A member of Kentwood Players for 43 years, Calia has appeared on stage in 20 musical productions starting with Hansel & Gretel. Favorite roles include Lotus Blossom in Teahouse of the August Moon, Fruma Sarah in Fiddler on the Roof, Lil in Octette Bridge Club, and Barbara Allen in Dark of the Moon. Recently, she portrayed Mrs. Boyle in The Mousetrap. Calia has been a KP board member serving as Group Sales, Box Office and Hospitality chairman. She welcomes this new experience as producer and encourages everyone to try it.

ABOUT THE CAST

Barbara Clifford (Monica) - This is Barbara's second time on the KP stage. She was last seen in her award winning performance as Gloria in P.J. Barry's After the Dancing in Jericho. She has appeared in numerous plays in the Southbay area. Barbara has also served on KP's Board of Directors and has been a member for 6 years. Special thanks to director Lynne Ingram, the cast and her husband, Oz Shobu, for his confidence and support.

William Goldyn (Allen) - William is an English/Drama/Film teacher at the Hollywood High School Performing Arts Magnet. He was last seen as Sergeant Trotter in KP's production of The Mousetrap. Since then, he has directed West Side Story and Rumors at Hollywood High. A new member at KP, Bill looks forward to directing and/or producing future KP productions.

Elizabeth A. Griffin (Michelle) - With nearly 15 years of stage experience, this is Elizabeth's debut at the Westchester Playhouse. She would like to thank her family for their unwavering, loving support. Also, she would like to share her favorite bit of advice: "be realistic. Plan for a miracle." - Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh

Bruce B. Mathews (Howard) - Mr. Mathews has been involved with theatre in Los Angeles for 25 years. He began acting while at the University of California, Riverside where he was a member of the MFA program as an undergraduate. He won the Inland Center Theatre Guild Award for Best Actor for his portrayal of Jaco in the musical Carnival. Mr. Mathews trained and worked at American Theatre Arts in Hollywood, where he participated in the original productions of The Gin Game and Devour the Snow. He won Drama-Logue awards for lighting design for productions of The Physicist and Rimers of Eldritch. Some of his most recent roles include: Salieri in Amadeus, Martin Dysart in Equus, Friar Lawrence in Romeo and Juliet, Iago in Othello, Jaquis in As You Like It and Paravicini in The Mousetrap. He was last seen at Kentwood as Sergeant Rough in Angel Street.

Richard Ransbottom (Sam) - Richard has performed in over 20 plays including The Odd Couple, Blythe Spirit, and The Music Man. He was most recently seen in an original play entitled Happy Hour at STAGES. Active in the voice-over industry, you have probably heard him on television or radio. Richard has also appeared in several films and just finished the feature film Bhopal Express, to be released this summer. He lives with his wife Ellie in Newport Beach.

She has won numerous Marcom Masque awards.
